

Zoya Yarnykh
Russian/English Translator

Zoya Yarnykh was born and raised in Moscow, Russia. She moved to the United States 15 years ago to pursue her secondary education.

Zoya's cross-cultural experience lends unique sensitivity to translations of both language and cultural idioms. Also, she has great precision and attention to detail honed from her significant experience in the legal field. She previously has worked as a professional translator and paralegal for the Law Offices of Arthur C. Chambers. Her experience includes translating legal affidavits, forms, briefs, and letters, among other documents for Immigration and Naturalization purposes.

Zoya graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology from San Francisco State University. Currently, she works as a freelance Russian/English legal translator while pursuing a Juris Doctor degree from the University of San Francisco, School of Law.
